

MILITARY COURTESY ASSESSMENT

Name _____

Circle True or False.

T	F	1. Cadets only salute officers indoors when they are reporting.
T	F	2. When saluting an officer, you do not need to greet them.
T	F	3. Saluting is optional if you don't know who the officer is.
T	F	4. The lowest ranking cadet or officer enters a vehicle first.
T	F	5. When outdoors, cadets in uniform salute officers about six paces away.
T	F	6. Cadets refer to all male officers as "Mister."
T	F	7. Lower ranking cadets should always walk to the right of higher ranking officers.
T	F	8. When an officer enters a classroom, the first person to see her or him calls the room to attention.
T	F	9. When talking to a female officer, cadets answer with "ma'am."
T	F	10. When an officer asks you to do something, it is considered an order.
T	F	11. You should never carry an umbrella while in uniform.
T	F	12. It is OK to chew gum while in uniform.
T	F	13. When indoors and not in uniform, if the flag passes by, you should put your right hand over your heart.
T	F	14. A cadet squad member who has a question should go see the commandant right away.
T	F	15. When ordered to report to an officer, you should salute, and say, "Sir (or Ma'am), Cadet (state your name) reporting as ordered."
T	F	16. "As you were" means you should continue fooling around if you were fooling around when an officer entered the room.
T	F	17. You salute with your left hand.
T	F	18. You address a Cadet Staff Sergeant as "Sergeant."
T	F	19. You address all Generals as "General."
T	F	20. You address civilian females as "ma'am."
T	F	21. An army Sergeant First Class would be addressed as "Sergeant First Class."
T	F	22. When outdoors and not in uniform, it is against the rules to salute an officer.
T	F	23. When coming from behind an officer, you salute and say "By your leave, sir (ma'am)."