

California Cadet Corps

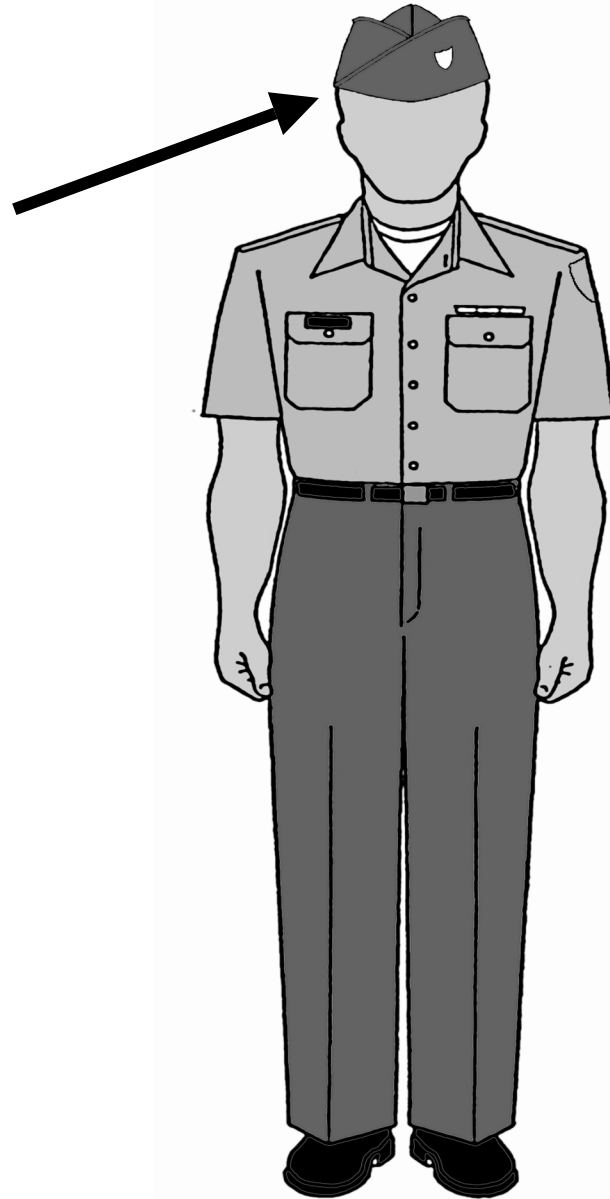

Wear of the Class B Uniform

Class B Uniform

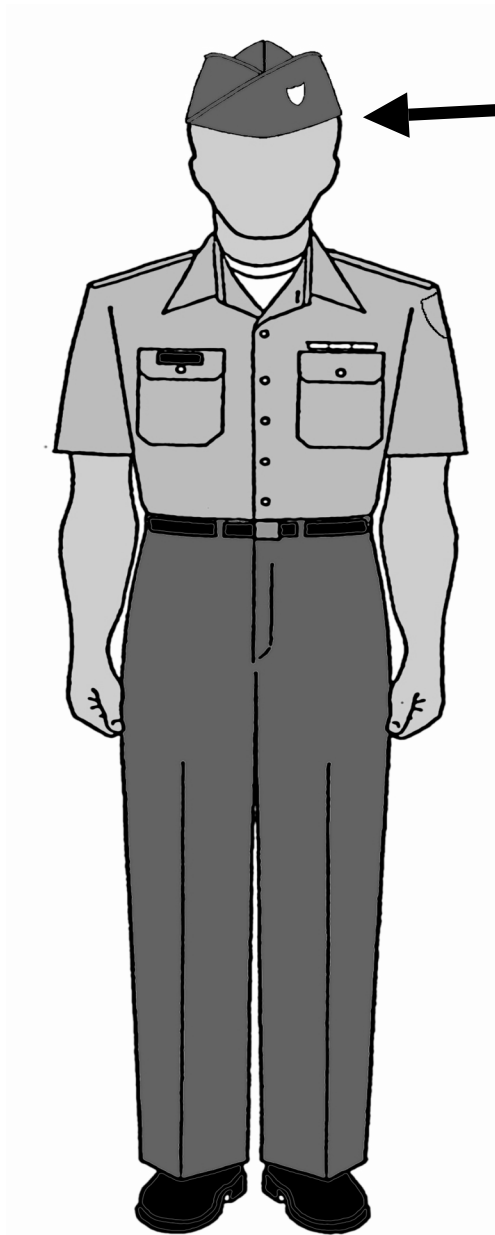

Class B Uniform

Garrison cap worn centered on your head with the flap facing forward two fingers from the bridge of your nose

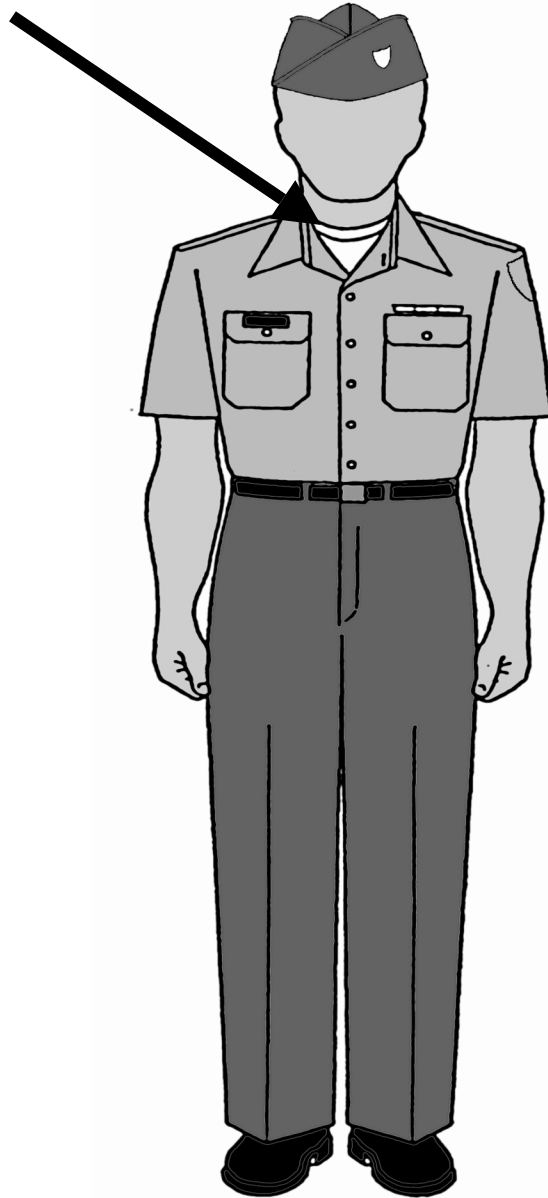

Class B Uniform

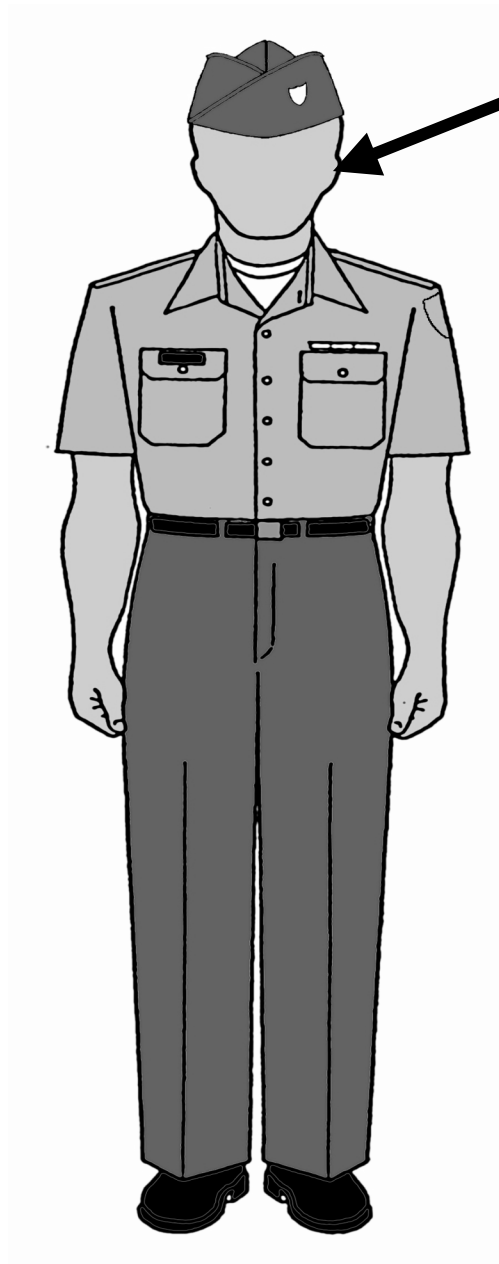

Hair is combed neatly. For young ladies, the hair is pinned up off the collar.

Plain white crew
neck t-shirt with no
marking on it.

Class B Uniform

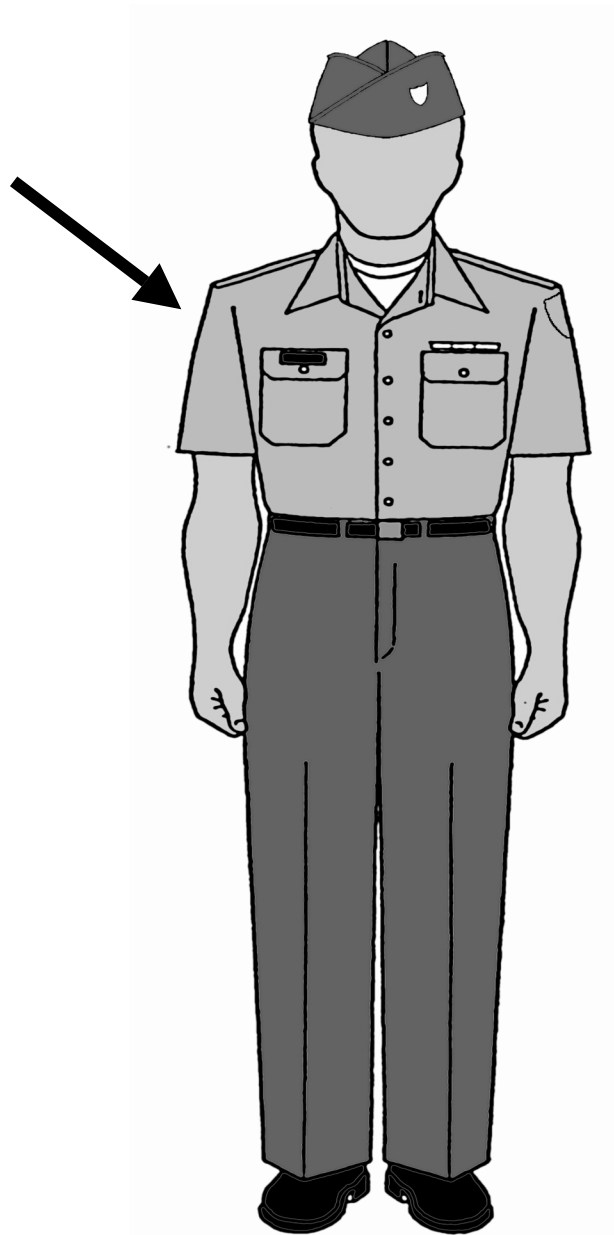

Class B Uniform

Cadets should be clean shaven and have clean faces and hands.

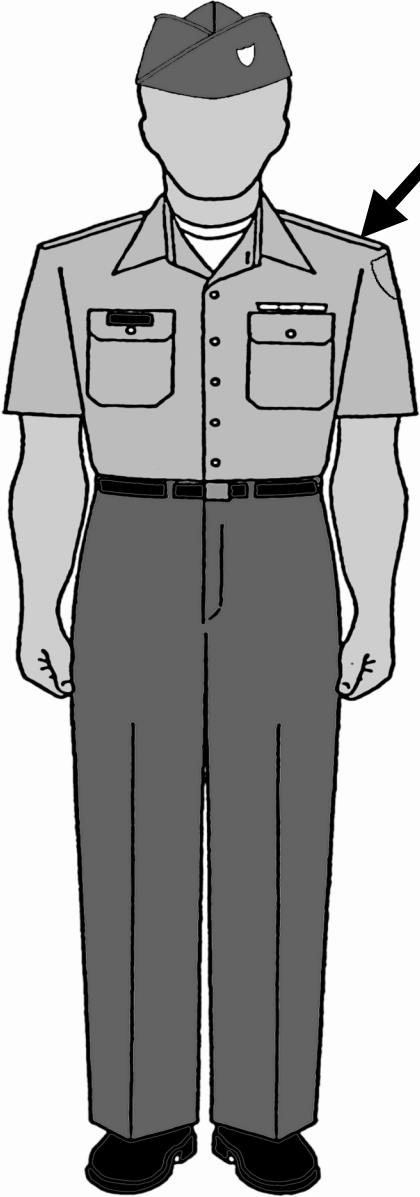

Class B Uniform

Brigade or unit patch,
if worn, is worn on the wearer's right, 1/2 inch
from the seam,
centered.

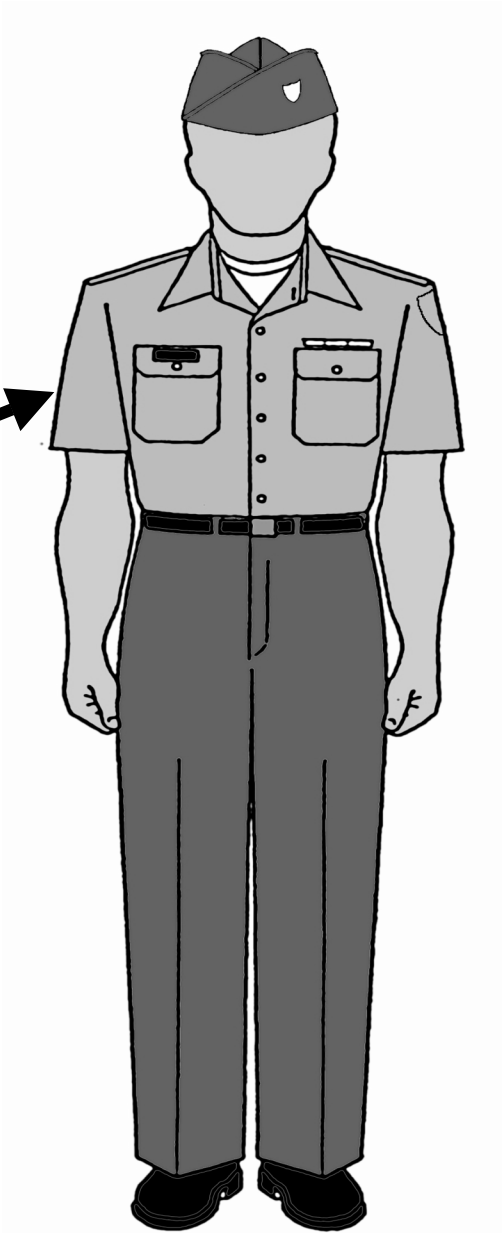

Class B Uniform

Rank insignia worn in accordance with regulations.

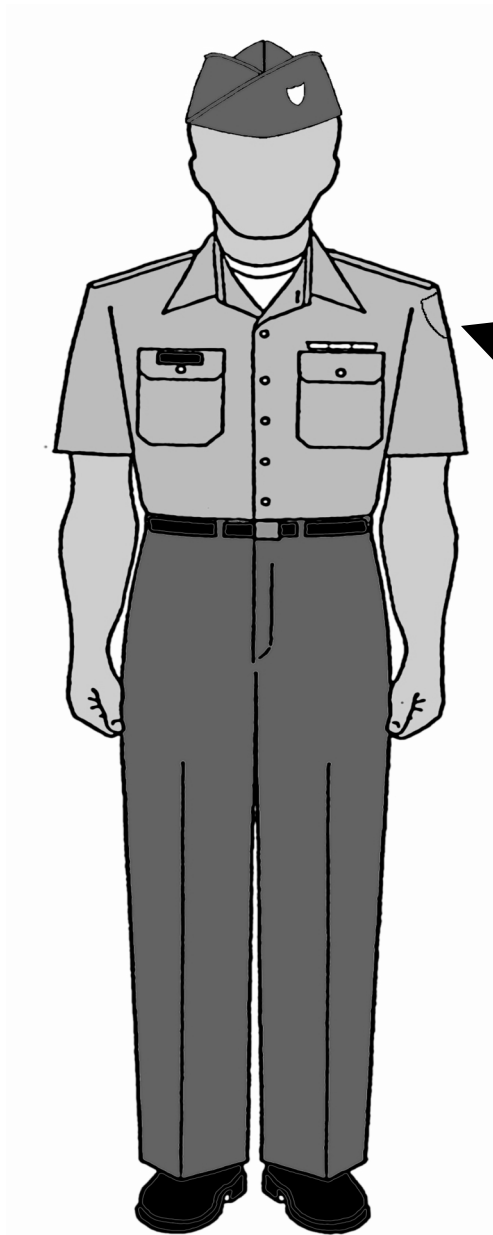

Class B Uniform

Creases on each sleeve WITHOUT going through the patch.

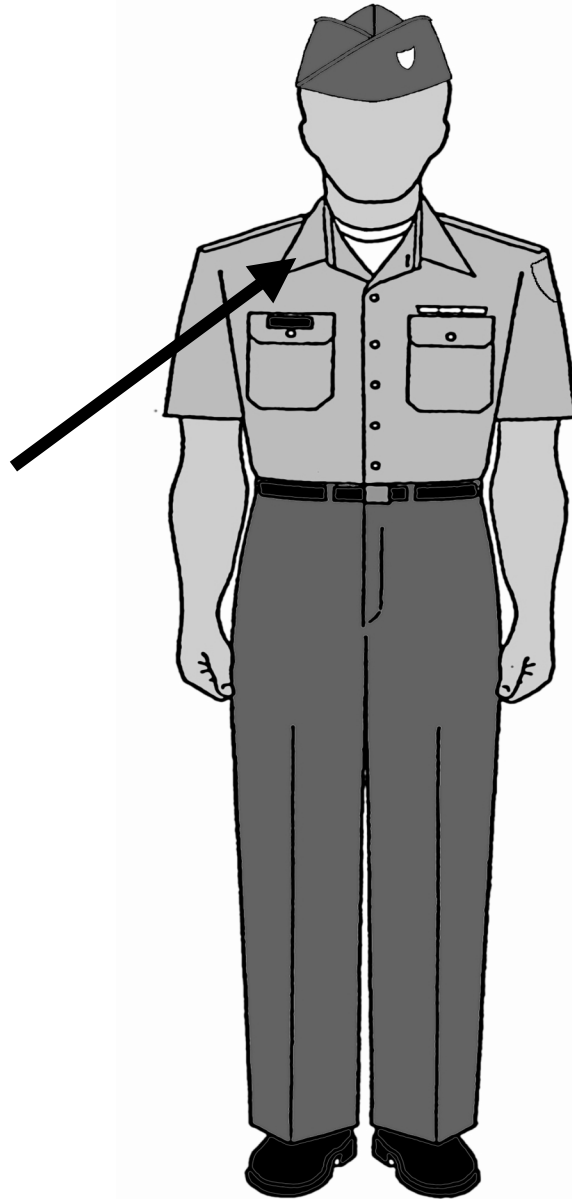

Class B Uniform

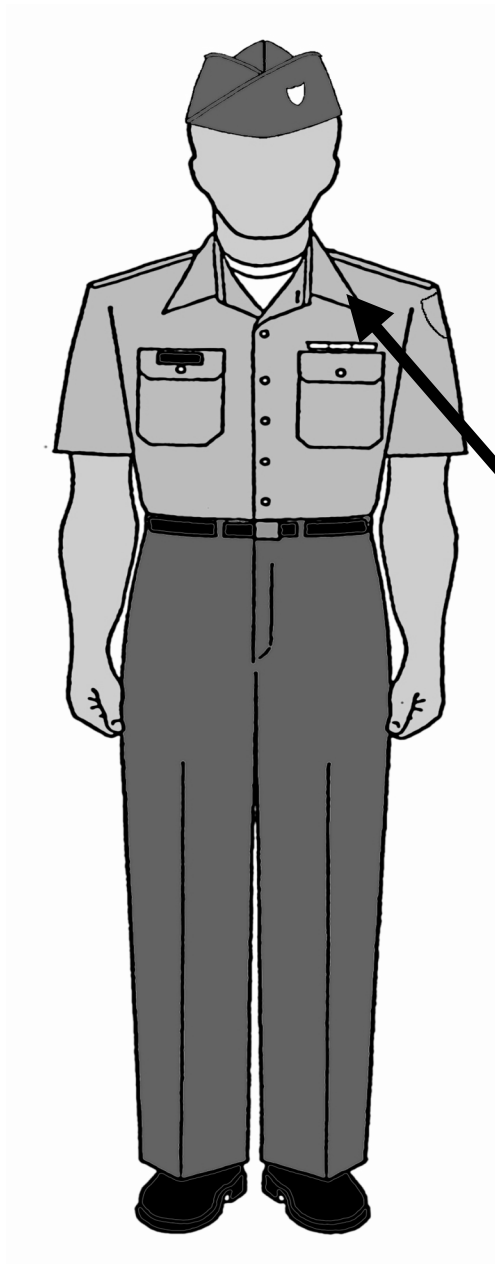

Cadet Corps patch is worn on the wearer's left, 1/2 inch from the seam and centered.

Class B Uniform

CAL insignia worn 1 inch from the bottom edge of the collar, centered, perpendicular to the ground, and shined.

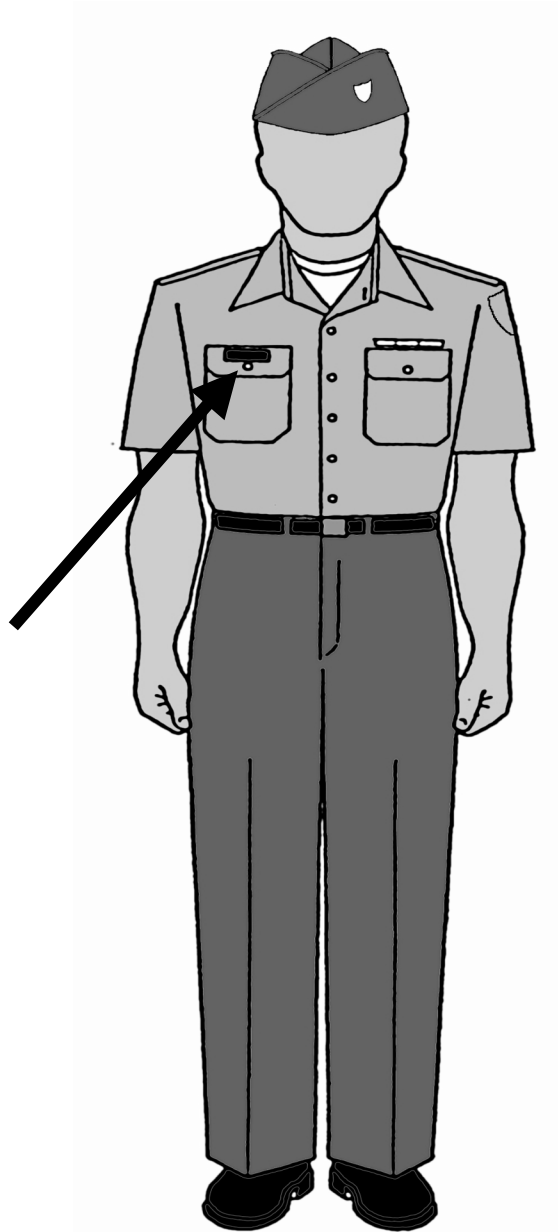

Class B Uniform

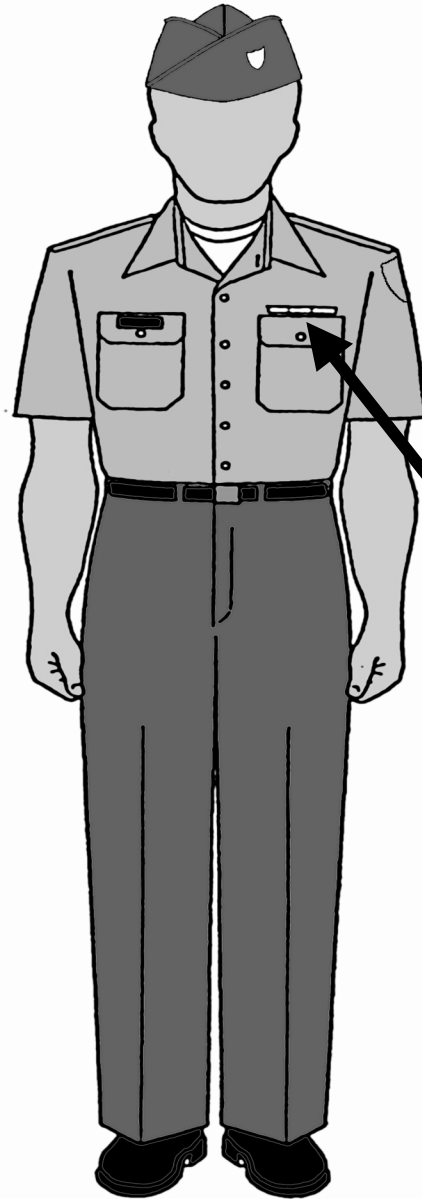

CORPS insignia worn 1 inch from the bottom edge of the collar, centered, perpendicular to the ground, and shined.

Class B Uniform

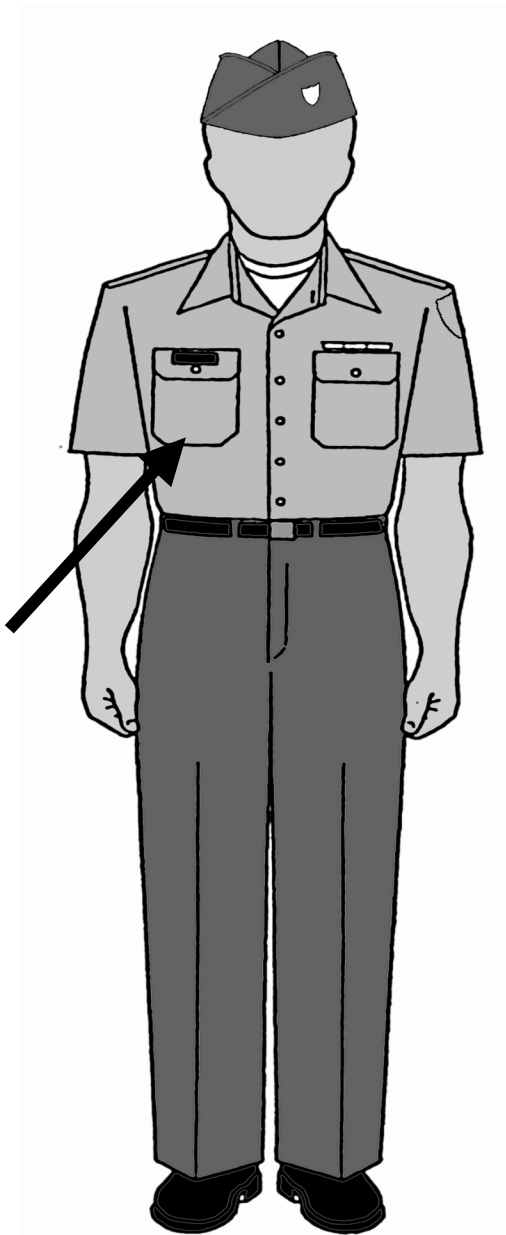

Black name tag with the cadet's last name is worn on the right pocket flap just below the seam and centered. Unit awards (only 2 of them) can be worn above the right pocket flap, centered.

Class B Uniform

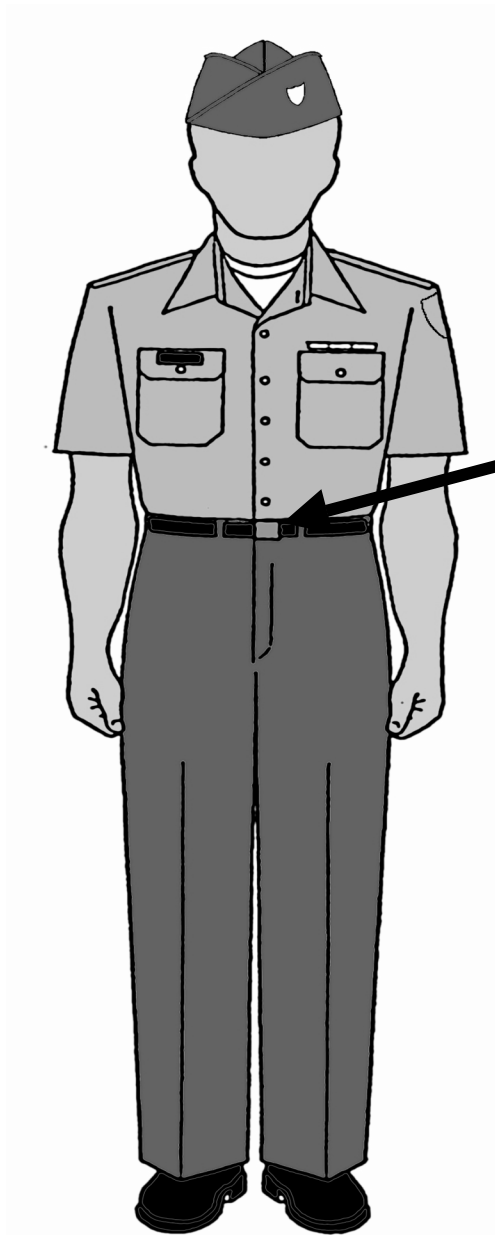

Ribbons are worn in the correct order, with the darker color to the wearer's right. No space is worn between rows. Cardboard supports the ribbons from behind the shirt to make the ribbons stable.

Class B Uniform

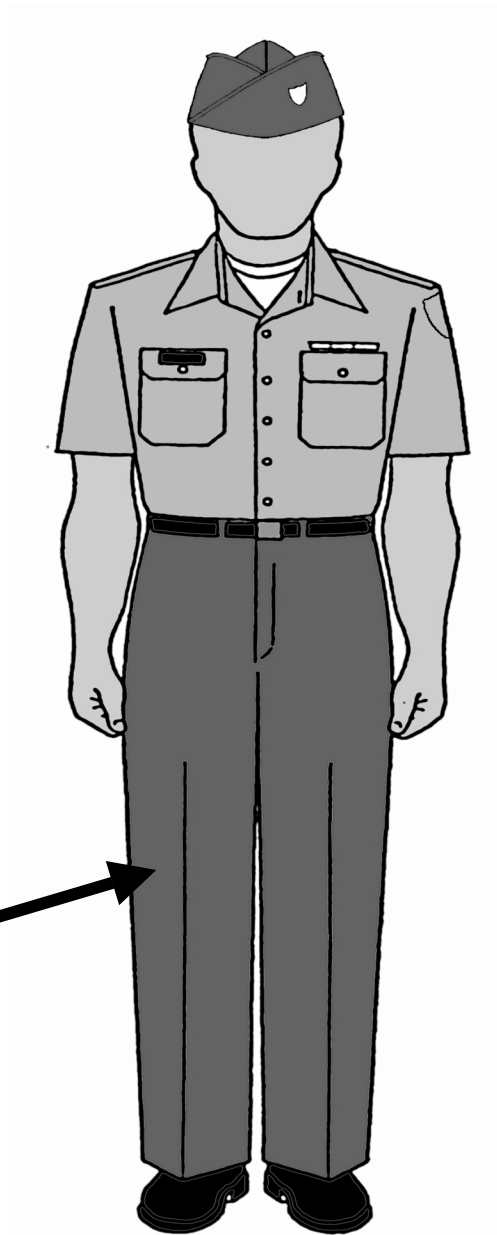

One crease down the center of each pocket from the epaulet seam to the shirt tail. Shirt is clean and pressed with no wrinkles.

Class B Uniform

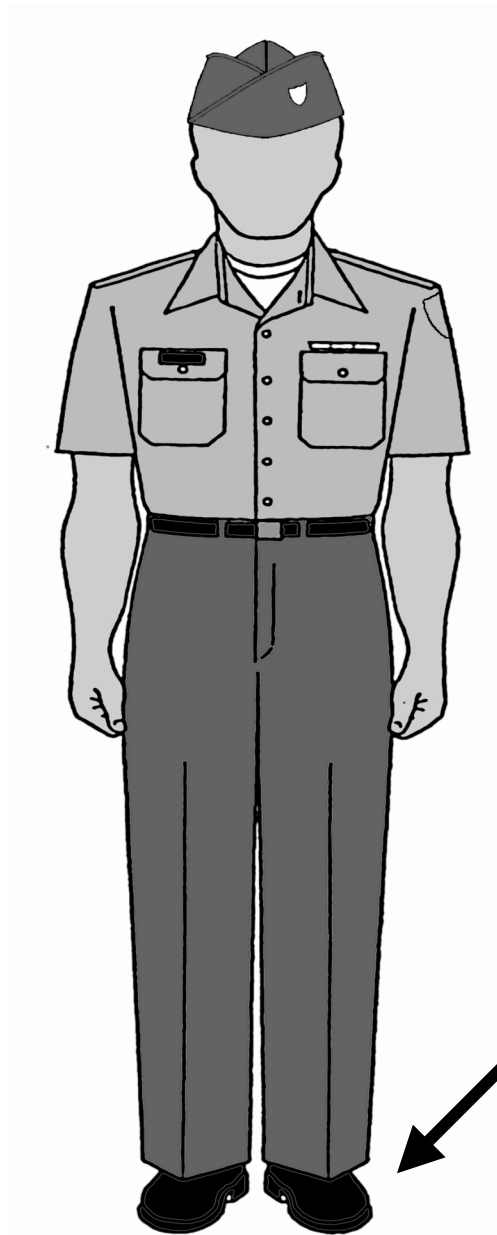

The web belt is worn with the buckle and tip shined to a high polish. The tip extends to the wearer's left so that no black part of the web belt will be exposed between the buckle and the belt tip. The GIG LINE is straight (shirt edge, buckle edge, and edge of the pant "fly")

Class B Uniform

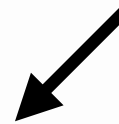

Pants are clean and pressed with creases from the belt line to the pant bottoms.

Class B Uniform

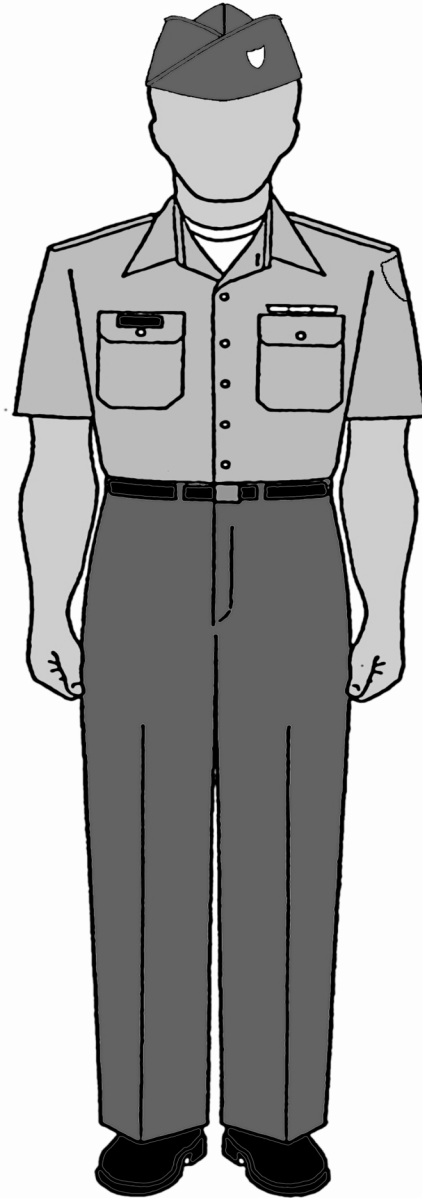

Black dress shoes are shined and worn with black dress socks.

Class B Uniform

Note: The Drill Team or Color Guard or other “membership” shoulder cords may be worn while actively participating as a member of those units. The Superior Uniform Inspection cord or other “achievement” cord may be worn for the period allowed in CR 1-1.

Class B Uniform

