

The Cadet Leader's Code

Part One

The Leader's Code

- I become a cadet leader by what I do. I know my strengths and my weaknesses, and I strive constantly for self-improvement. I live by a moral code and set an example that others can follow. I know my job, and I carry out the spirit as well as the letter of the orders I receive.
- I take the initiative and seek responsibility, and I face situations with boldness and confidence. I estimate the situation and make my own decisions as to the best course of action. No matter what the requirements, I stay with the job until the job is done; no matter what the results, I assume full responsibility.
- I train my cadets as a team and lead them with tact, enthusiasm and justice. I command their confidence and their loyalty: they know I would not assign to them any duty I, myself, would not perform. I make sure they understand their jobs, and I follow through energetically to ensure their duties are completed fully. I keep my cadets informed, and I make their welfare one of my prime concerns.
- These things I do selflessly in fulfillment of the obligations of leadership and for the achievement of the group goal.

Part One

- I become a cadet leader by what I do. I know my strengths and my weaknesses, and I strive constantly for self-improvement. I live by a moral code and set an example that others can follow. I know my job, and I carry out the spirit as well as the letter of the orders I receive.

I become a cadet leader by what I do

- My actions make me a leader, not the position I hold.
- If I act like a leader, people will want to follow me.

I know my strengths and my weaknesses

- What I am good at and what I am not good at
- What I need to improve upon and what I already do very well

And I strive constantly for self-improvement

- I am always trying to get better at the things I am not as good at
- I am always showing people that I do not know everything, but I am trying to get better

I live by a moral code

- I do not lie
- Cheat
- Steal
- Tell dirty jokes
- Drink alcohol
- Smoke
- Do drugs
- Etc

And set an example that others can follow

- People see me and the way I act
- My behavior is always better than other cadets and they can always count on me to behave properly

I know my job

- I am good at my assigned job(s)
- I have a lot of knowledge about the Cadet Corps and everything I am responsible for

And I carry out the spirit as well as the letter of the orders I receive

- The “letter” of orders means I follow the exact orders I am given, word for word
- The “spirit” of the orders means I follow the ideas behind the orders

An example of “spirit” and “letter” or orders

- I ask you to guard the front door of school for Open House to help guests and I tell you not to move from there.
- An older woman asks you to escort her to the office.
- The “letter” of the orders says do not move, but the “spirit” says it is OK to help
