

Patriot

Hazel Johnson

African-American

Hazel Johnson

1935-

Hazel Johnson was born in West Chester, Pennsylvania. She served 28 years in the Army Nurse Corps.

Hazel Johnson

1935-

Education

- Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Villanova University
- Masters of Arts in Nursing from Columbia University
- Ph.D. from The Catholic University of America

Hazel Johnson

1935-

Army Career

- Staff nurse in Japan
- Chief nurse in Korea
- Assistant Dean of the University of Maryland School of Nursing.
- Director of the Walter Reed Army Institute of Nursing
- Chief of the U.S. Army Nurse Corps

Hazel Johnson

1935-

Brigadier General

“The first African-American Woman to achieve this rank in the U.S. Army”

Brigadier General Hazel Johnson

