United States Army

Since its birth on 14 June 1775 - over a year before the Declaration of Independence-the United States Army has played a vital role in the growth and development of our nation. Soldiers have fought 10 wars, from the American Revolution through the Cold War, the Gulf War, to the current War on Terrorism.

United States Army

The Army is composed of an active duty component, also known as the “Regular Army” and the Reserve Components of the Army National Guard and U.S. Army Reserve

“The Army Goes Rolling Along” Official Song Of The U.S. Army

The song was written by field artillery First Lieutenant (later Brigadier General) Edmund L. Gruber, while stationed in the Philippines in 1908 as the "Caisson Song." The original lyrics reflect routine activities in a horse-drawn field artillery battery. The song was transformed into a march by John Philip Sousa in 1917 and renamed "The Field Artillery Song."

“The Army Goes Rolling Along” Official Song Of The U.S. Army

It was adopted in 1952 as the official song of the Army and re-titled, "The Army Goes Rolling Along."

The "Army Goes Rolling Along" is played at the conclusion of every U.S. Army ceremony and all soldiers are expected to stand and sing.

“The Army Goes Rolling Along” Official Song Of The U.S. Army

Intro: March along, sing our song, with the Army of the free
Count the brave, count the true, who have fought to victory
We're the Army and proud of our name
We're the Army and proudly proclaim

“The Army Goes Rolling Along” Official Song Of The U.S. Army

Verse: First to fight for the right,
And to build the Nation's might,
And The Army Goes Rolling Along
Proud of all we have done,
Fighting till the battle's won,
And the Army Goes Rolling Along.

“The Army Goes Rolling Along” Official Song Of The U.S. Army

Refrain: Then it's Hi! Hi! Hey!
The Army's on its way.
Count off the cadence loud and strong (TWO! THREE!)
For where e'er we go,
You will always know
That The Army Goes Rolling Along.

“The Army Goes Rolling Along” Official Song Of The U.S. Army

Verse: Valley Forge, Custer’s ranks,
San Juan Hill and Patton’s tanks,
And the Army went rolling along
Minute men, from the start,
Always fighting from the heart,
And the Army keeps rolling along.
(refrain)

“The Army Goes Rolling Along” Official Song Of The U.S. Army

Verse: Men in rags, men who froze,
Still that Army met its foes,
And the Army went rolling along.
Faith in God, then we're right,
And we'll fight with all our might,
As the Army keeps rolling along.
(refrain)
