

California Cadet Corps Regulation 1 Series

Administration and Personnel

Cadet Corps Regulation 1

- You have already studied this regulation in great detail
- It was the regulation on General Administration such as orders, service records, filing, and correspondence

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-1 Cadet Award and Decoration

- This regulation tells you how every cadet award can be earned, including
 - Ribbons
 - Trophies and plaques
 - Cords
 - Honor bars
 - Unit awards

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-2 Commandant Code of Conduct and Ethics

- This regulation tells Commandants and others exactly what kinds of behaviors are expected and prohibited as adult members of the California Cadet Corps program
- It includes provisions for cadets, parents, and others to file complaints when they think a commandant has broken the code

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-3 Commandant Uniforms

- This regulation is brief. It says commandants who meet height and weight requirements specified by the California National Guard may wear the Army uniforms with certain slight modifications (such as the red name tags).

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-3 Commandant Uniforms

- Army Regulation 670-1 governs the majority of the Commandant uniform wear questions a commandant might have
- Other commandants wear an “Alternative Uniform” explained in this regulation

Cadet Corps Regulation 1- Commandant Officer Personnel Management

- How do commandants get promoted?
- What does it take to become a commandant, assistant commandant or special projects officer in the California Cadet Corps?
- What are the procedures to be transferred or reassigned as a commandant?

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-5 Cadet Appointment and Promotion

- This is another very important regulation for cadets.
- It outlines exactly what is required for cadets to earn each promotion during their membership in the California Cadet Corps.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-6 Annual General Inspection

- Each year, the HQs, CACC is supposed to conduct an inspection of each CACC unit (within budget limitations).
- This regulation explains the grading criteria and procedures used in the inspection.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-7

Commandant Awards and Decorations

- Exactly like the cadets, commandant can earn ribbons for their service (though not nearly as many as the cadets can earn 😊)
- This regulations details the requirements for each ribbon a commandant can earn in the CACC.
- It also explains how those ribbons are worn with other ribbons a commandant may have earned in another state or federal military service.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-7 Commandant Awards and Decorations

- Exactly like the cadets, commandant can earn ribbons for their service (though not nearly as many as the cadets can earn 😊)
- This regulations details the requirements for each ribbon a commandant can earn in the CACC.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-8 Cadet Uniforms and Insignia

- This is perhaps the most important regulation of all!
- It tells cadets exactly how to wear each aspect of their uniform, including
 - Class A
 - Two different versions of the Class B uniform!
 - The Class C uniform

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-9 Establishing a California Cadet Corps Unit

- How does a school or school district go about establishing or starting an official CACC unit?
- This regulation explains the procedures and has the correct forms to accomplish this.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-10

Commandant Personnel

Credentialing

- A credential is a license to teach in California Public schools.
- This regulation governs and explains exactly how a person qualifies and applies for a credential to teach the California Cadet Corps through a credential known as the Basic Military Drill Credential.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-11

Delegation of Signature Authority

- Laws Laws Laws
- California requires governing boards of schools and school districts, like the “Board of Education” to tell state agencies like the CACC HQs who can sign forms and official documents on behalf of the school or governing board.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-11

Delegation of Signature Authority

- This regulation explains how a governing board delegates that signature authority to individuals such as school administrators, brigade advisors, and in some cases, Commandants.

Cadet Corps Regulation 1-12 CACC Organizational Colors and Guidons

- This Regulation specifies the design and use of the CACC flag (I get you didn't even know we had one of those, did you?)
- It also governs the design and use of guidons in the California Cadet Corps.

Cadet Corps Regulation

1-13, 1-14

- These regulations have not yet been published but they will be soon, and they will cover how the cadet 10th Brigade Staff operates and how the adult M-Day staff operates – that's the adult staff that is the HQs of the CACC.