Honesty

Honesty Definition:

“Stating facts and views as best one truly believes them to be”

Being Honest

A person who is considered honest is one who displays integrity, is genuine and not deceptive or fraudulent.

Honesty is characterized by truth and sincerity.

Being Honest

Honesty denotes the quality of being upright in principle and action.

Honesty implies truthfulness, fairness in dealing with others, and refusal to engage in fraud, deceit, or dissembling.

If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything.

Mark Twain

Those who think it is permissible to tell white lies soon grow color-blind.

Austin O'Malley

A lie has speed, but truth has endurance.

John F. Kennedy

We tell lies when we are afraid
– afraid of what we don't know, afraid of what others will think,
afraid of what will be found out about us. But every time we tell, the thing that we fear grows stronger.

Tad Williams

Pretty much all the honest truth telling in the world is done by children.

Oliver Wendell
